Dear Friends and Family,

It's with great excitement that I'm writing to announce the opening of Abrenio Law. There, I will serve Personal Injury and Criminal Defense clients throughout Northern Virginia. I also wanted to take a moment to thank those in my life that made this possible.

I was blessed with parents that always stressed hard work, education, honesty, and demonstrated unqualified love. To my family, I am genuinely grateful for your love and support. Without you, I would not have the faith to pursue my dreams. Thank you to my friends, whom I've had the pleasure of knowing. I'm fortunate to have friendships with people from childhood but also developed through school and work. You continue to inspire me while also reminding me not to take life too seriously.

To my fellow lawyers, those with whom I've worked in the past and those who I'm always reaching out to for advice, I'm a better attorney and better person because of your guidance. I love what I do, and I couldn't do it without your kindness. These thanks are especially true for those whom I've talked with recently about my interest in starting my firm.

Thanks to Ben Glass, and the BenGlassLaw team. It was an honor working with you, and I wish you the best of success.

I also want to thank a close friend of mine that was willing to take time out of his Sunday afternoon, with his family coming along for the ride, to walk around Fairfax City to help me take pictures for my website. This gesture, I won't soon forget.

Lastly, I want to thank Linda Choe, who has been my rock. Without you, none of this means anything. You give me direction, focus, and purpose. Words alone cannot express how important you are in my life. I'm excited that you're coming along with me on this ride.

Since I was young, I wanted to be a trial attorney. I'm blessed to have a career that allows me to speak for those who often have no voice during some of the most challenging times in their lives. I also always knew that I wanted to own my own business. Fortunately, I live in a country, and a great Commonwealth, that provides the ability to thrive. I only hope I can live up to that opportunity.

Sincerely,

James S. Abrenio
